First Annual Golda Meir House Museum
Sparks of Possibility Poster Competition

In anticipation of Golda Meir’s birthday on May 3, the Golda Meir House Museum is hosting the First Annual Sparks of Possibility Poster Competition. Golda Meir served as Israel’s fourth prime minister and is recognized as one of the Twentieth Century’s most influential women, a powerful international leader, and a diplomat who enormously impacted the course of history. Winning posters will be on display at the Golda Meir House Museum located on the Auraria Campus in Denver Colorado for the month of May.

Theme
All entries must illustrate Golda Meir’s quote: “Make the most of yourself by fanning the tiny, inner spark of possibility into flames of achievement.”

One winner will be chosen in each of three categories:
– Most Creative Overall Poster Design
– The Spirit of Golda Meir Poster Design
– Modern Interpretation of Golda Meir Poster Design

Requirements
– Posters may be created using any medium (paint, pastels, photography, illustration, collage, Adobe Creative Suite, etc.)
– Final posters must be submitted digitally in an 11” x 17” format, saved as a .pdf or a .jpeg saved at 300dpi.
– Please include your first and last name, address, age and the name of the school you currently attend with your submission.

Participation
The poster contest is open to anyone 15–17 years old or currently enrolled in 9–12 grade.

Deadline
Entries must be received by midnight MST, March 31, 2022 and should be emailed to: golda.museum@ahec.edu.

Please include “poster contest” in the subject line and be sure to include all of the personal information as required.

Winners
Entries will be judged by Golda Meir House Museum volunteers and a panel of students currently enrolled in design programs at the three schools on the Auraria Campus (Community College of Denver, Metropolitan State University of Denver and University of Colorado Denver). Winners will be notified by email the week of April 25. The winning entries will be on display at the Golda Meir House Museum May 1–31, 2022 and posted on the Golda Meir House Museum website.
